

Meeting: 1003, Atlanta, Georgia, MAA CP U1, MAA Session on Mathematical Experiences for Students Outside the Classroom

1003-U1-780 Michael Fraboni, Moravian College, 1200 Main St, Bethlehem, PA 18018. The Anatomy of an Undergraduate Mathematics Conference.

This year Moravian College will host its 19th annual undergraduate student mathematics conference. Our conferences have had excellent results including many contributed talks on a wide range of mathematics and computer science. I will discuss some of the important points in organizing a student conference. (Received September 29, 2004)
