We will describe the Morava E-theory of the layers of the Goodwillie tower of the identity evaluated on odd spheres in terms of a modular isogeny complex. The E-homological behavior of attaching maps between layers will also be discussed. This is joint work with Charles Rezk. (Received September 20, 2011)