We study the time-harmonic Maxwell equations on exterior problem, using transfered field expansion which turns the problem with exterior of a regular sphere. We perform spherical harmonic analysis on tangential plan and use Legendre-Galerkin spectral method on radius direction. This high order method is efficient and accurate, which can be easily extended to multi-domain scattering. (Received September 25, 2012)