1. MINUTES

Section 1. Call to Order

Subsection 1.1. Opening of the Meeting and Introductions

President Browder, who presided throughout, called the meeting to order at 7:00PM (PDT). Members were introduced. Members present were: James G. Arthur, John L. Bryant, Francis Bonahon, Felix E. Browder, Robert J. Daverman, John M. Franks, Susan Friedlander, Frederick P. Gardiner, Gail D. L. Ratcliff, Mary Beth Ruskai, Bernard Russo (Associate Secretary with vote), Michael Starbird, Karen Vogtmann, and Nolan Wallach.

Also attending were John Ewing (ED) and Paul Rabinowicz (Nominating Committee Chair).

The current membership of the Council, as of the April 99 Council meeting, is listed in Attachment A.

Subsection 1.2. 1998 Council Elections

The Society conducted its annual elections in the fall of 1998. Those elected took office on February 1, 1999, and the newly elected members of the Council are:

Vice President:	James G. Arthur, University of Toronto
Members-at-Large	Haim Brezis, Rutgers University and IHES Robert A. Fefferman, University of Chicago Donald G. Saari, Northwestern University Tatiana Toro, University of Washington Nolan R. Wallach, University of California, San Diego

In addition, Felix E. Browder became President on that date. As a result of Council action in May 1998, John Bryant became the Associate Secretary for the Southeastern Section.

Section 2. Minutes

Subsection 2.1. Minutes of the January 1999 Council

The minutes of the January 1999 Council were distributed by mail and were available on the web. The following addition and corrections were noted.

An item 3.2.4, stated below, was omitted.

3.2.4. Mathematical Surveys and Monographs Editorial Committee

The Council approved the appointment of Michael Loss (Georgia Institute of Technology) on the Mathematical Surveys and Monographs Editorial Committee for a three year term, beginning 01 February 1999 and ending 31 January 2002.

In the Minutes of Business by Mail (Attachment B, item B.1), the term of Jonathan Alperin's appointment to the Mathematical Reviews Editorial Committee began 01 February 1998 and will end 31 January 2001, not the beginning date of 01 February 1999 and ending date of 31 January 2002 given there.

Susan Friedlander's name was misspelled in Item 3.3.1.

The minutes were approved as corrected.

Subsection 2.2. Minutes of Business by Mail.

The Council elected a member to its Executive Committee, approved an appointment to an Editorial Committee, and endorsed a Statement on Tenure so as "to speak in the name of the Society." Minutes for this business are found in Attachment B. The Secretary requested approval of these minutes, which the Council granted. The actions are summarized below.

Subsection 2.2.1. Election to the Executive Committee.

The Council held an election for a member to serve on the Executive Committee (EC). Karen Vogtmann, Member-at-Large, was elected to a 4-year term beginning March 17, 1999, until a new member is elected to replace her. That election will occur in February 2003.

Subsection 2.2.2. Election to the Colloquium Editorial Committee.

The Council voted to endorse the recommendation of the Editorial Boards Committee that Susan Friedlander be reappointed to a 3-year term, from 01 February 1999 through 31 January 2002, on the Colloquium Editorial Committee.

Subsection 2.2.3. The Council voted approval of the following Statement on Tenure so as to speak in the name of the Society.

STATEMENT ON TENURE

The American Mathematical Society strongly supports the institution of tenure. Tenure plays an essential role in guaranteeing academic freedom and institutional integrity, benefitting institutions, students, faculty, disciplines and society at large.

- Tenure maintains the strength of academic institutions, as it is the permanent faculty that provides leadership and direction. Tenure provides stability and mitigates the effects of fads and fashions.

- Tenure helps to renew academic disciplines by ensuring the continued supply of individuals who will dedicate their careers to advancing those disciplines.
- Tenure helps maintain academic quality by establishing a set of high standards that must be met for continued employment. Standards for ongoing contract renewals are typically less stringent.
- Tenure supports work on significant long-term projects.
- Tenure provides strong protection for free flow of ideas, guaranteeing the right to express views without fear of dismissal.
- Tenure provides the benefit of job security, which helps attract highly talented individuals to teaching and research.

Tenure has played a central role in establishing and maintaining the strength and quality of American higher education. Individual abuses of the tenure system should be addressed directly, rather than by eliminating one of the cornerstones of our educational system.

Section 3. Consent Agenda

There were no consent items in this agenda

Section 4. Reports of Boards and Standing Committees

Items 4.1 and 4.3 were considered in executive session.

Subsection 4.1. Nominating Committee

The AMS Nominating Committee submitted a report which has been filed in the AMS Committee Report Book for 1999 as Report No. 990410-001. In it they recommended nominations of candidates for election in the 1999 Election and suggested consideration of a slightly different financial arrangements policy between the AMS and the institution/organization employing the AMS President.

Subsection 4.1.1. President-Elect

The Nominating Committee recommended HYMAN BASS (Columbia University) and DAN W. STROOCK (MIT) as candidates for election to the post of President-Elect for a one year term beginning February 1, 2000. After serving as President-Elect for one year, the winner of this election then will serve two years as President, followed by one year as Immediate Past President. Both agreed to run. The Council nominated both of them.

The Committee recommended that I. KAPLANSKY (MSRI) write the nomination article for Bass and that V. GUILLEMIN (MIT) and S. VARADHAN (NYU) write one for Stroock, which the Council approved.

Subsection 4.1.2. Vice President

The Nominating Committee recommended and the Council nominated DAVID EISENBUD (MSRI) and THOMAS G. KURTZ (University of Wisconsin) as candidates for election to the position of Vice President for a term of three years, beginning February 1, 2000, until January 31, 2003.

Subsection 4.1.3. Members at Large of the Council

The Nominating Committee recommended and the Council nominated PATRICIA E BAUMAN (Purdue University), WILLIAM FULTON (University of Michigan), SUSAN C. GELLER (Texas A&M University), MARTIN GOLUBITSKY (University of Houston), ELLEN E. KIRKMAN (Wake Forest University), JONATHAN M. ROSENBERG (University of Maryland), CLAUDE L. SCHOCHET (Wayne State University), RONALD J. STERN (University of California at Irvine), LISA M. TRAYNOR (Bryn Mawr College), and WILLIAM YSLAS VELEZ (University of Arizona) as candidates for election to the position of members at large of the Council (five to be elected). The term is three years, beginning February 1, 2000, and ending January 31, 2003.

Subsection 4.1.4. Board of Trustees

The Nominating Committee recommended and the Council nominated ERIC M. FRIEDLANDER (Northwestern University) and DONALD E. MCCLURE (Brown University) as candidates for election to one position as trustee for a period of five years beginning February 1, 2000, and ending January 31, 2005.

Subsection 4.1.5. Recommendation concerning the President

The report of the Nominating Committee included the following statement:

We believe that the duties of the AMS President have become so time consuming, in part because of a) the increased importance of vigorous AMS representation in Washington, and b) the duties associated with the five policy committees, that it is extremely difficult for anyone to perform satisfactorily as President while simultaneously carrying out their usual responsibilities at their home institution.

We thus strongly recommend that full release time for the President for the two years of his or her presidential term be negotiated with the President's institution, possibly with some AMS funding.

The Council endorsed the spirit of the report, recommending that the Board of Trustees assure flexibility in partial funding, as needed and appropriate, to support release time for the President.

Subsection 4.2. Centennial Fellowships Committee Report

The Centennial Fellowships Committee has announced fellowship awards to Dr. Charles W. Rezk (Northwestern University), Dr. Bin Wang (Brown University), Dr. Chang You Wang (University of Chicago, now at Loyola University of Chicago), and Dr. Tonghai Yang (SUNY at Stony Brook). All have accepted. The alternate was Dr. Alexander Polishchuk (Harvard University).

Subsection 4.3. Editorial Boards Committee

The Editorial Boards Committee recommended the appointment of DENIS TALAY (INRIA Sophia Antipolis, Nice, France) to the Mathematics of Computation Editorial Committee, a step that would involve an expansion of the Editorial Committee, not simply replacement of an editor. The Council recommended to the Board of Trustees (BT) an increase in the size of the Mathematics of Computation Editorial Committee from 4 to 5 members and (2) approved the appointment of Talay to the new post, contingent upon positive BT action.

Section 5. Old Business

Individual Member Dues for 2000

According to the bylaws, the Council sets the dues with the approval of the Board of Trustees. [Article IX, Section 2, states in part: "The annual dues of an ordinary member ... shall be established by the Council with the approval of the Trustees."]

The Executive Director and the Secretary recommended to the Council that (1) ordinary high dues remain at their 1999 level of $132 for 2000 and (2) the high/low dues cutoff be increased from $55,000 to $65,000 for 2000. The Council approved both measures and recommended them to the Board of Trustees.

Section 6. New Business

The Executive Director, John H. Ewing, gave his annual report to the Council. That report is filed in the AMS Committee Report Book for 1999 as Report No. 990410-002.

Section 7. Announcements, Information and Record

See the listing of future meetings in Attachment D.

Section 8. Adjournment

The Council adjourned at 9:08PM (PDT).

1. Election to the Executive Committee

In the election to the Executive Committee the result was

Robert Bryant	11
Karen Vogtmann	18

Accordingly, Vogtmann is declared elected, effective immediately, and ending when a replacement is determined in the election of February 2003.

2. Appointment to the Colloquium Editorial Committee

On Susan Friedlander's appointment to the Colloquium Editorial Committee, there were 27 votes in favor, 1 opposed, and 1 abstention. Accordingly, her appointment is approved.

3. Endorsement of the Statement on Tenure so as to speak in the name of the Society.

On endorsing the previously approved Statement on Tenure so as to speak in the name of the Society, the result was:

Yes	27
No	1
Abstain	1

Passage of a statement “so as to speak in the name of the Society” requires a favorable vote of two-thirds of the Council (voting) members. For this mail ballot there were 36 Council (voting) members. Accordingly, the Statement on Tenure is adopted in the name of the Society.

ATTACHMENT C. BACKGROUND ON INDIVIDUAL DUES AND MEMBERSHIPS.

1998 individual dues revenue totaled $1,440,000. The best current projection for 1999 individual dues revenue is $1,412,000. The projected $30,000 decline in individual dues is largely the result of two key changes in ordinary membership introduced for 1999: a) a new ordinary entry membership category with a reduced rate for new and recent ordinary members set at one-half ordinary low dues and b) an increase in the salary cutoff point between ordinary high and ordinary low dues from $45,000 to $55,000.

A natural question is what might the 1999 dues figure be had these changes in ordinary membership not been made. To answer this question, one must project the level of 1999 ordinary high and low members in the absence of the two changes. The most plausible assumption is that the number of ordinary high and low members in 1999 would follow the trends of recent years. Hence, the number of ordinary high members in 1999 would be unchanged from 1998, and the number of ordinary low members in 1999 would decline by three percent from their 1998 level, or about 180 fewer members than in 1998. (Ordinary low memberships declined by 5% from 1996 to 1997, and by 4% between 1997 and 1998.) With these assumptions for ordinary members, one can then estimate a hypothetical 1999 dues income of $1,469,000. So the effect on dues revenue of the two changes is no greater than $57,000. This compares favorably with the worst case estimate of $89,000 made in May of 1998. Perhaps more importantly, the changes in ordinary membership appear to have increased the number of ordinary members by 500 over what they might have been without the changes.

Another key issue is what might the impact on dues revenue be if the high/low salary cutoff were raised from $55,000 to $65,000 for 2000. The best that one can do here is a rough estimate since 1) we don't know the salary distribution of our ordinary members and 2) we don't know how many individuals who make above $55,000 already pay ordinary low dues. The best we can do for 1) is to use the salary distribution for the mathematics faculty. Based on the fall 1998 salary survey of the AMS-ASA-IMS-MAA Annual Survey, 20% of the faculty in mathematics departments make between $55,000 and $65,000. Assuming this distribution fits our ordinary high and low members, then approximately 1,700 earn salaries in the $55-65K range. (This figure is based on the current estimate of 8,500 combined ordinary high and low members in 1999.) A $33 reduction in dues for each of these ordinary high members means a total reduction in dues of about $56,000.

The only way to estimate the favorable impact of 2) on the estimate is to see how close the current numbers of ordinary high and low members compares with that suggested by the salary distribution. The salary distribution figures say that 51% of the faculty earn more than $55,000. As of February 28, 52% of the combined high and low ordinary members were ordinary high. This suggests very little "cheating" on dues level, hence there is no reason to lower the 1,700 figure.

One final note on the current trend in 1999 ordinary memberships. Our overall gains in ordinary members to date seems to be primarily due to higher than typical retention of 1998 ordinary members. This is a very encouraging sign.
