In a recent paper, Calegari and Stein make a number of conjectures related to their study of discriminants of Hecke algebras. We prove one of these conjectures, which has to do with mod \( p \) congruences between modular forms of weight four and the derivatives of modular forms of weight two. (Received September 27, 2005)