In this talk we consider linear recurrence relations with unbounded order where the coefficients are restricted to intervals which include zero. The optimal inequalities, under the given constraints, eventually satisfy a second-order structure. (Received September 28, 2005)