We introduce the notion of operator-valued frames over Hilbert C*-modules and study its various properties. A natural application is to (vector) frames of infinite multiplicity and in particular to subrepresentations of the left regular representation with infinite multiplicity of a discrete group. In the case of ICC groups (factorial case) we prove the norm-connectedness of the operator-valued frames. (Received September 28, 2005)