We look at $BC_r$-graded intersection matrix algebras that arise from multiply affinizing a Cartan matrix of a complex finite dimensional simple Lie algebra. The process is analogous to and extends the construction of an affine Kac-Moody Lie algebra. We will also examine the coordinate algebras that arise in the realizations of these intersection matrix algebras. (Received September 16, 2008)