Much is known now about hyperbolic 3-manifolds with pairs of non-hyperbolic Dehn fillings. The situation that is least understood is when one of the fillings is a Seifert fibered space. We will discuss work in progress on the case where one of the fillings is Seifert fibered and the other is toroidal. (Received September 15, 2010)