Great Marketing Tool

Stand Apart from the Crowd ...

The annual Joint Mathematics Meetings (JMM) invites you to become a sponsor of the most prominent mathematical meeting of the year. The JMM draws a record-breaking attendance of over 5,000 participants—mathematicians, employers, exhibitors and students.

The JMM attracts people with some of the most substantial personal spending authority in the industry. This unique environment offers companies the ideal opportunity to focus their marketing activity by gaining both exposure and access to a highly targeted panel of speakers and participants. The meeting includes invited addresses, special sessions, courses, a prize ceremony, receptions, exhibits, contributed paper and poster sessions, an Employment Center, special events, and many opportunities to connect with colleagues old and new.

Benefits to your Company Include: ...

- Increased customer contact and business opportunities
- A unique opportunity to give clients "hands on" experience with your products and services
- An opportunity to launch new products
- An opportunity to enhance and promote your company profile
- Broad exposure to the industry before the meeting through promotional material

Don't let your competition beat you to the draw!

The following are ways to keep your name before the mathematical community and make a lasting impression.

All sponsorships include:

- Preferred booth location (requires sign up for sponsorship and booth location by end of May)
