

1096-VC-2137 Salar Alsardary (s.alsard@usciences.edu), 600 South 43rd Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, and Mohammad Haraaz, Philadelphia, PA 19104. Contribution of the Muslim Scientists in the field of mathematics.

In this presentation, we will shed some light on the contribution of early Muslim scientists to the field of science in general and to mathematics in particular. We will start by presenting the scientists, their main field of contribution, where they lived and when they died. We will focus our attention towards two of the most successful and well known scientists during the Muslim golden age; Mahammad ibn Mosa Al-Khwarizmi and Nasir al-Din al-Tusi. (Received September 17, 2013)