
The homology and cohomology groups of ordered configurations are known on a number of simple graphs. I will give explicit presentations for the (co)homology of ordered and unordered configurations of two points, along with intersection pairings, on k-pronged graphs and trivalent trees, and discuss the geometrical/combinatorial structures which relate the presentations. (Received August 14, 2014)