We study a natural generalization of the zero divisor graph introduced by Anderson and Livingston, extended to commutative rings graded by abelian groups by considering only homogeneous zero divisors. We develop a basic theory for graded zero divisor graphs and present many examples. Finally, we examine classes of graphs that are realizable as graded zero divisor graphs and close with some open questions. (Received September 20, 2016)