A matrix for a linear transformation that maps Pythagorean triples into Pythagorean triples is called a Pythagorean-triple-preserving matrix (PTPM). In this talk, we will see how to construct PTPMs whose entries can be expressed in terms of Fibonacci numbers. (Received September 09, 2016)