

1135-VI-2695 Sean Droms (droms@lvc.edu). Reading Mathematics is a Learnable Skill. Preliminary report.
The mathematics department at Lebanon Valley College places a strong emphasis on reading and understanding technical material. I will share some of the ideas and techniques our department uses to teach the reading of mathematics, especially in service courses for non-majors. (Received September 26, 2017)
