

1035-Z1-329

Srilal N Krishnan* (skrishnan@iona.edu), 715 North Avenue, New Rochelle, NY 10801.

Having fun in classroom with Mathematics from India.

This presentation gives an insight into Indian Mathematics and its relevance in classroom teaching. The use of poetry in Indian Mathematics in the twelfth century to the use of geometry in constructing altars and some interesting applications of Vedic Mathematics that can be used to enhance classroom learning will be discussed. (Received September 03, 2007)